ITINERARY

DAY 1: HOTEL STAY - NEW ORLEANS

Included in your voyage is a luxury hotel stay. For this itinerary, we will reserve a room for you at one of these properties: The Westin New Orleans Canal Place or Hilton New Orleans Riverside. Tomorrow, you will board the American Queen.

DAY 2: NEW ORLEANS, LA

Enjoy the sights and sounds of New Orleans today. This afternoon, you will board the American Queen to begin your voyage.

DAY 3: OAK ALLEY, LA

Located in the Saint James Parish, Oak Alley is a much-photographed plantation that combines architectural splendor and the natural wonder of its 300-year-old oak trees. Spend time strolling beneath the canopy of these trees, and learn about the rich history and culture of this southern estate.

Complimentary Tour (No Hop-On, Hop-Off Option): Disembark from the American Queen and walk across the street to enjoy the beauty and dream of Oak Alley's rich past. Located on the Mississippi River between the historic Louisiana cities of New Orleans and Baton Rouge, Oak Alley Plantation has been called the "Grande Dame of the Great River Road". Nowhere else in the south will you find such a spectacular setting! The quarter-mile canopy of giant live oak trees, believed to be nearly 300 years old, forms an impressive avenue leading to the classic Greek revival style antebellum home. The setting will remind you of the movie "Gone with the Wind" and makes you feel like you are on a Hollywood movie set. Oak Alley's adaptive restoration in 1925 by her new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stewart, was the first example of antebellum restoration along the River Road. Through the years, Oak Alley was the scene of many events affecting those who had given her a second chance at survival in the struggle against time and the elements.

DAY 4: BATON ROUGE, LA

The capital of Louisiana, Baton Rouge is the center of all the great things the state has to offer—visitors delight in the seamless blend of past and present experiencing authentic Louisiana at every turn. With its semi-tropical climate, the outdoors is tempting and the attractions abound. No wonder this is one of the south’s fastest growing cities.

This is also a great opportunity to pick up Louisiana souvenirs. Then, the loop will take us around Capitol Lake through Arsenal Park for a beautiful view of the current Governor’s Mansion which was built in 1963, when Jimmie Davis was Governor. Also included is a stop by the Old Arsenal Museum, which was built in 1838 and used by the U.S. military during the Mexican and Civil Wars.

Here you can step onto a simulated Mardi Gras float, discover the difference between Cajun and Creole, and lose yourself in multimedia presentations. For the art lover, your next stop is the LSU Museum of Art, located inside the Shaw Center for the Arts and featuring a diverse art collection. The last stop on the loop is Louisiana’s Old State Capitol building, the 160-year-old statehouse that has withstood war, fire, scandal, bitter debate, abandonment and the occasional fistfight.

TOUR OPTIONS:

OAK ALLEY, LA - LAURA: A CREOLE PLANTATION - OAK ALLEY

If Oak Alley is the Hollywood version of a southern plantation, the Laura Plantation is the reality show that demonstrates how a southern plantation operates. Surrounded by fields of sugarcane and hosting 12 buildings on the National Register, your 90-minute guided visit takes you through the newly restored Big House, the grounds, the formal French parterre, the vegetable and fruit gardens, the Banana Land grove, and the 170-year-old slave cabins where the west-African folktales of Compair Lapin, known in English as the legendary "Br'er Rabbit", were recorded.

Laura's acclaimed tour, named the "Best History Tour in the US," by Lonely Planet Travel UK, is based upon personal, compelling accounts found in the French Archives Nationales as well as from Laura Locoul's own Memories of the Old Plantation Home, and of the plantation's Creole owners, women, slaves and children. View Laura's family furnishings, heirlooms, portraits, weapons, Mardi Gras and business artifacts, and marvel at the highly skilled workmanship of slave artisans and treasures of Creole America's unique traditions and folklore.

The Laura Plantation Store carries a wide selection of books on Creole history, culture, architecture, music and cooking; it is also well stocked with the handmade wares of more than 40 local artists and craftsmen, including soaps, perfumes, holiday ornaments, sugar candles, wines, liquors, candies, pralines, dolls and jewelry.

In the heart of Plantation Country, Baton Rouge is known for southern charm and grandeur, but there is another story to be told. This story does not involve big homes, hoop skirts and elaborate parties but does offer plenty of surprises along the way. On this tour, you will be immersed in Baton Rouge history and culture through dynamic tales told by famous – and infamous – Louisiana characters.

First, you will visit Boutin's Restaurant for lunch to enjoy live Cajun music and dancing along with traditional Southern Louisiana dishes such as a fried seafood platter. Next, explore Louisiana State University's Rural Life Museum and Wind Rush Gardens often referred to as "Louisiana's best kept secret!" The museum has the largest collection of cultural artifacts and tools from hardworking citizens of 19th-century Louisiana and includes 32 historic buildings spread over the 25-acre complex.

Finally, hear the legend of former Louisiana Governor Huey Long who was a strong supporter of Louisiana's working man, but quickly became Louisiana's "Kingfish," the most powerful man in the state. You will gain insight into just how powerful Long became when you see some of his creations, such as LSU's Tiger Stadium or the Louisiana State Capitol building, which he designed and was later assassinated in while walking out of a meeting.
